or foreign hands, but among our citizens we have no right to discriminate either for or against any particular person or persons. We have no right to say that only one class of our people shall be given work, no right to promise any member of any one particular organization that they and only they be the chosen ones. We must be allowed to hire men according to their efficiency and discharge them if their service is not satisfactory and not be actuated by their standing in any society or their power to bring or lose us political strength.

A Willing Worker.

"This blacksmith in question does his work well and is ready at any hour, day or night, to obey orders, and in the nature of the city's work we must have a man when we need him, and not only in prescribed hours. This man's helper, a citizen of El Paso, also works in the stable, cleans up the corral and is a general utility man. There would not be enough work for him as only a helper to the blacksmith nor enough work to occupy two men to do the blacksmithing and shoeing separately. With the unions plan, we would have to have a blacksmith and a horseshoer and then an extra man to work in the stable, making an outlay of $3.50 per day as against $1.50 as it now exists, and this useless extra expense, the council feels it has no right to incur, and if it did so, then the taxpayers would have grounds for complaint.

Appeal To Fair Minds.

"The stand the council takes might be different were it acting for its individual interests or as a board of directors for a private corporation, but we feel that as patriotic and fair minded citizens, the committee appointed by the labor unions must approve of our actions and if they Sewer Work.

Sewer commissioner J. W. Hadlock's report for the week showed 200 feet of sewer laid in blocks 30 and 44, Alexander's addition, 10 1/2 feet in 30 flush tanks and manholes examined, two plugged sewers cleaned. All sewers running two-thirds full. The report of building inspector S. B. Harratt for the month of May showed $288.50 collected in fees. The scavenger's report for May showed $1351.80 collected.

To Operate Dance Hall.

E. K. Lamb's application for permission to operate a dance hall on Tornillo street between Fourth and Fifth streets was granted with the understanding that no intoxicants be sold there. Alderman Clayton stated that the council as a whole recommended the denial of the petition of South Stanton street, between Fourth and Fifth streets both ways.

Clayton then read the request of the labor unions who asked that two union men be employed at the municipal blacksmith shop. This was signed by John C. Sanchez, Timothy O'Toole and El M. Walker. The report of the city council was then read and approved.

Blumenthal said: "I recommend that the matter be referred to the chairman of the fire and water committee with power to act."

McGhee recommended that Hewitt be authorized to act, at the same time seeking advice of the city attorney.

Taxes Remitted.

Sam Silverman asked for a refund of taxes paid on tenements erected on lot 11, block 87, Campbell addition. As it was shown that this improvement was not made until after March 1, 1909, McGhee recommended that the taxes be remitted on overvaluation of $3000, and this was done.

The first estimate of paving on Rio Grande street showed $634.34 due and this was allowed subject to the approval of the city attorney.

The approach to the Mesa fire station cost $153 for paving and this was ordered paid.

The bid of the Texas Bitulithic company for paving East Missouri street from Oregon street to Cotton avenue was presented and accepted.

Alderman Blumenthal then said that there had been much opposition to the truckster ordinances and asked that he be granted further time to investigate it before any action is taken. This was granted.

The following petitions were received and referred to the various committees:

Luis Acuna, for permission to allow his streetcar zone to drive "bus" to street and grade committee.

ESTRADA IS EASY VICTOR

It is believed here that the evacuation of the east coast is the only alternative open to Madrid to avoid the destruction of his armies.

Capt. Gilling has advised the navy department that the Dubuque, which landed a force of marines at Bluefields, had returned to Colon for coal and provisions. The department has directed that the Vicksburg go to Corinto, on the west coast of Nicaragua and there relieve the Princeton, which has been ordered to Puerto Sol.

A Bloody Week.

This has been the bloodiest week of the war and the total of the casualties on both sides will run up into the hundreds, including several Americans who had cast their lots with the revolutionists.

Rama is up the Rama river 50 miles from Bluefields. The Madrid attack on Rama was largely thwarted by the work of a young American, Paul D. man, of Boston, whose system of mines around Bluefields proved an important factor.

As the enemy advanced, one of these mines exploded and a company of Madrid men almost completely annihilated. Several other Americans were handling some rapid fire guns behind the fortifications at the same time and the ranks of the advancing army wavered and then broke for cover.

Americans Active.

That ended the fighting behind Bluefields for that day. That night Gen. Estrada brought 300 men down from Rama to reinforce his troops near Bluefields and a large searchlight erected and operated by Guy Maloney, of New Orleans, and Samuel Thompson, a Boer veteran, was kept playing in the direction of the enemy until a solid shot from one of the guns of Gen. Lara's artillery put it out of commission.

In the fighting at Rama, William Ross, said to be from Milwaukee, Wis., and to have served either in the United States army or navy, was killed in the Estrada trenches.

HUMANE OFFICER MAKING ARRESTS

Special humane officer E. E. Morrow arrested W. E. Morris, of the El Paso Building Material company, and he was docketed at the police station on a charge of cruelty to animals. Complaint was made by police sergeant Powell Roberts that Morris had kept a horse for 24 hours in harness without food.

Wednesday evening the humane officer arrested Tom Castlebury at the wagonyard on Texas street near the corner of Virginia, and he was also docketed on a charge of cruelty to animals.

Dr. E. M. Bray having made a complaint charging Castlebury with beating a team of mules with a blacksnake whip. During the past two weeks that Morrow has been connected with the humane society he has taken a dozen crippled horses off the streets without arresting owners. Morrow says that many other horses he has sent to the blacksmith shops for shoeing and have found to be suffering from lack of attention.

DEMING GETS UP A FINE DISPLAY

Products in the Chamber of Commerce Advertising the Region.

Deming, N. M., June 2.—The chamber of commerce is installing an exhibit in the room adjoining the secretary's office in the Decker block. The most striking part of the exhibit is the fruit. There are 12 jars three feet tall containing apples, plums, grapes, pears, nectarines and other fruits perfectly preserved in formaldehyde. There is also one of these tall jars containing extract of cane sugar, as well as specimens of preserves and canned fruits which would be hard to equal. As the season progresses, this exhibit will be added to, until there is a truly representative exhibit put together.

The Deming Ice & Electric company has erected poles five miles into the country with incredible rapidity. The poles for the main line are already up, and the wires are being strung. The farmers are busy getting their wells in shape to install pumps and motors. It is feared that the installing of these motors will be too late in the season to get in a crop of anything but beans. However, since beans net $10 per acre in the valley, there is not much cause to complain.

Mrs. George Shull leaves Deming this afternoon for Memphis, Tenn. She will visit during the summer in Mississippi and Missouri.

Mrs. B. P. Shull and children left yesterday afternoon for Elkhart, Mo., where she will be met by her husband. They will all return to Deming in the fall.

MYSTERY SURROUNDING DEATH OF KELLY DISTRICT MINER

Santa Fe, N. M., June 2.—Capt. Fred Fornoff, of the mounted police, was today informed that foreman A. R. Scheurich, who was supposed to have died as a result of injuries received in a fall down a shaft in the Kelly mining district, and who was buried at Taos, had in reality been murdered. This fact was brought out by a post mortem examination by Dr. T. P. Martin who found that Scheurich had been choked and then struck over the head with a rock, the wound causing death.

When Scheurich was picked up at the bottom of the shaft at Kelly he was unconscious. He was taken to a hospital at Albuquerque, where he died without regaining consciousness. He was then brought to Santa Fe and from there taken to Taos for burial, where relatives not satisfied with the certificate of death, asked Dr. Martin to make an examination. Mounted policeman Robert Lewis has been detailed to make an investigation.
